

2016/2017 ANNUAL REPORT

Because of you...

Because of you... Hundreds of newly diagnosed women received a full year of Unite for HER programming—healing, educating, and supporting their needs during treatment and beyond.

Because of you... Our women felt supported and empowered at a time when they were at their most vulnerable.

Because of you... Our programming touched the loved ones in our women's lives. Husbands, partners, parents, and siblings receive our support—enabling them to help our women build confidence and resilience through treatment and recovery.

Because of you... We educated more than 20,000 women and students about the importance of adopting healthy, preventative measures to take control of our health and wellness.

Thank you for being such passionate and committed ambassadors of Unite for HER. This year more than ever, our community has emerged. It's clear that you know who we are, where to find us, and how to support us! We couldn't be more grateful.

At Unite for HER, we are honored to serve these beautiful women and their families year after year through their darkest days. With your support, we're proud to share the significant pros we've made this year on several fronts—all with the goal of fortifying our infrastructure to serve more women affected by breast cancer. We eagerly took on the challenge of adding two new hospital partners, Jefferson and Crozer-Keystone Health Systems. With these two new relationships, we now partner with 22 hospitals and cancer affiliates throughout the region. These relationships are vital to Unite for HER, serving as the critical connection point between our organization and the women we serve. To meet the growing demand for our services, we added two talented women to our small, hardworking staff. We expanded our social media presence and enhanced our professional services team with additional financial and legal support. This year, we made steady and deliberate progress in establishing the infrastructure needed to carry us far into the future.

At Unite for HER, we rise by lifting others and we thank you for being such an integral part in this year's expansion and in the journey ahead.

Wellness Programs

WELLNESS DAYS

Through the Unite for HER Wellness Day program, breast cancer patients learn about the benefits of complementary therapies and create a personal plan for incorporating these fully-funded services into their treatment and recovery.

The women in Unite for HER's Wellness Program represent all ages and all stages of disease and treatment—what they share is a common need for guidance, support, and the resources for healing. At small group Wellness Days, Unite for HER introduces participants to therapies that have been proven to alleviate the devastating physical side-effects and emotional challenges arising from treatment, including acupuncture, massage therapy, yoga/meditation, exercise programs, nutrition services, Reiki, and professional counseling.

Following the Wellness Day, Unite for HER fully funds up to $2,000 of the complementary therapies each woman chooses to meet her unique needs, all delivered through our network of specially-trained and compassionate practitioners. This program is the first and only in the Philadelphia area to deliver complementary therapies to breast cancer patients, all at no cost to the participant. This past year, we delivered twenty two Wellness Days to 740 women.

“My Wellness Day was a life moment that I don’t think I will ever forget. Even after a couple of days, I still fill up with tears when I think about what a blessed experience this day was for me.” Carol

THRIVE!

This spring, we welcomed fifty nine of our past program participants for an afternoon of reconnection, renewal, and rejuvenation. The retreat featured healthy living experiences including yoga, meditation, healthy beauty, and nutrition. Many participants reported afterwards “I didn’t realize how much I still needed this.”

BECAUSE OF YOU...

"I'm a pretty strong person, but after my diagnosis I just felt lost at sea. I was looking for someone to give me a shove in the right direction. That was what Unite for HER did for me—you put me on the track and helped me see where I needed to go.

I used my Wellness Passport for acupuncture, hoping that it would help with the neuropathy in my hands and feet. The first two treatments were helpful, and after the third treatment the relief was almost immediate—I walked out and felt like a million bucks! I hadn't expected it to help with the crippling fatigue I was experiencing, but it did that too. When you are going through treatment, you don't always want to tell the people you love how you are struggling. My acupuncturist, Dr. Stroz just knew, and let me get it all off my chest. I probably wouldn't have tried acupuncture without Unite for HER, but now I know I will keep going for the rest of my life.

Unite for HER let me see the breast cancer as a gift—not everyone gets a wake up call like I did. My experience with Unite for HER allowed me to see all the beautiful things, all the kindness shown to me during that time. I can't put into words how much you helped me. I am so grateful to Unite for HER for allowing me to see this past year as a positive, meaningful time in my life." Eileen

Aimée found strength.

"I had no idea how to get through my breast cancer journey. Unite for HER guided me through nutrition, it gave me tools to take care of myself, and connected me with other women who knew exactly what I was going through. When I attended my Wellness Day, I felt for the first time that people understood exactly what I needed to start healing. Through Unite for HER, I received acupuncture, massage, and Reiki. These treatments helped me to deal with the pain and connected my spirit to my new body. Along with the physical support, the Unite for HER website and social media is so important to me. The tips, advice, and nutrition continued to guide me even after I completed my Wellness Passport.

My needs have changed along my almost two-year journey, but Unite for HER has been there with me throughout. I am so grateful to Unite for HER for giving me the strength I needed!"

Aimée

Wellness Programs - Her Story

BECAUSE OF YOU...

Amy found support.

"I attended a Unite for HER Wellness Day soon after my first chemo treatment, so I was about as terrified as I've ever been in my life. I won't lie, the event was emotional. I felt strange and slightly out of place—at 31 years old, I think I was the youngest woman there. I didn't want to be there because I didn't want Stage 3c breast cancer, I wanted my old life back. I constantly looked to the past not to the future. I fell into a dark place, a deep depression and I struggled both physically and emotionally. UFH gave me access to therapy I needed to endure what I was experiencing. On my darkest days I managed to get myself to therapy because I knew it was the only thing that would help. Without it, I'm not sure I would have been able to get back to being Amy. I write this with tears in my eyes because my heart has been through so much that no one quite understands.

Unite for HER is an important resource that connects with women and delivers what they need. This organization helped me long after my Wellness Day. It was the mentality UFH promotes. A thought process that values and supports my individuality and emotional needs as a woman. Allowing our hurts to be just that....hurting, instead of sugar coating, minimizing, or invalidating our experiences. UFH spoke openly about the reality that this isn't over when treatment is, and hearing that was so important. As a mental health clinician, I assure you, being able to give off this energy of support and love to a group of strangers, in such a genuine way, is no small feat, but actually quite miraculous. I thank you from the bottom of my heart" Amy

"When you go through treatment, you feel like you lost all control over your body. Unite for HER gives us hope in a way that we do have control over our health and cancer. Through Unite for HER, I was able to begin acupuncture right after my chemotherapy. Acupuncture helped me emotionally and gave me some of that control back. It also gave me the strength I needed to finish treatment. The work that Unite for HER does teaches us that not to let a diagnosis of cancer take over your life, and to be good to yourself. It makes us feel loved."

Mehraz

"Unite for HER has offered invaluable services to aid my patients' recovery. I see women having fewer side-effects from chemotherapy after receiving acupuncture, improved energy and physical strength after yoga, and feel more confident in their ability to complete cancer therapies. The long-term benefits of Unite for HER's program and education are also apparent years later when women are empowered to exercise, eat well, and change other life habits that lower cancer risk and improve their health."

Dr. Linna Li, Main Line Health

Community

Because of you...

Our Unite for HER team can be found throughout the community all year round at speaking, outreach, and fundraising events. Through you, our message about the importance of healthy living practices comes to life, and because of you, women facing a difficult journey feel empowered, supported, and loved.

STUDENTS UNITE FOR HER

Students in the Philadelphia region and beyond continued to bring their incredible spirit with pink games, pink days, and more! But make no mistake, this is not just another pink shirt! Through their fundraising efforts, our students delivered $129,000 to support local women in the community. In addition, our students also gave back eight grants totaling $13,750 to families in their school affected by breast cancer as a part of our Students Unite for HER Grant Program. Beyond the incredible fundraising, our student program gives us the opportunity to share our message about prevention with young people, and help them learn some simple ways to make healthy upgrades.
